ENROLLMENT 1634

Volume 39

*Coahoma, Coahoma, we kneel before thine altar,
In reverance, in homage, in consecration strong,
Upon the earth where'er we tread
We never will thy name degrade.
We challenge wrong, with never any dread,
We shall not be afraid.
Coahoma, Coahoma, our aim is not to falter,
But to be brave in the good life to which we all belong.*

SOCIAL SCIENCE EDUCATION/PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The membership is open to all Social Science and other interested majors at Coahoma Community College. The goals are to be of service to the communities that encompass the district for Coahoma Community College. As an annual tradition, the club assists in the Thanksgiving Day Celebration. This year the club members focused on bringing stories alive to elementary students through reading in Coahoma County.

The Science and Math Symposium was established in 1961 under the leadership of the late Rayford Keys and Frank W. Gambrell, Jr. The purpose of the symposium is to promote scholarships and to introduce students to professionals in their area of study, and to learn about the many opportunities available to them.

Scholarships are given to freshman Science major with the highest scholastic average above 3.0 and for those students who desire to continue his/her education beyond the two-year level.

The four specific clubs originated from the English-Foreign Language Department are the English Club, the Drama Club, the Creative Writers Guild, and the Black Literary Society. The clubs are open to all English majors and other interested students.

The Black Literary Society observed Kwanzaa before Christmas break. All the clubs embrace participation in Black History Month. The Drama and English Clubs sponsor a dramatic marathon on Georgia Lewis Day during springfest. The Creative Writers Guild encourages student writers to hone their skills by competing for first, second, and third awards. The entries, with the permission of the student authors, are published in Free Spirits.

The students resolved to have a special year for memorable fun and educational activities.

Business and education were brought together when students prepared to enter the business world and interacted with others. The club initiated with campus activities, business ventures, organized community services projects, fundraisers, and supported the March of Dimes.

Residence Assistants

When students first entered the institution's dorms, one of the first orders of business was to hold elections for their residence hall. There are a total of five Residence Assistants (RA's).

Throughout the year, RA held several activities including community service drive of saving cans which benefited Breast Cancer Research, cookouts and keeping a close check on the intramural sports schedule. Resident assistants also assisted in the 2002 coronation activity.

Resident Assistants do not have defined job description like someone who works at a restaurant. The job is constantly changing because needs come at different times.

Residents have admitted to being intimidated by RA's because of the position of authority, but RA are not boogie men or boogie women. They are just students.

DELTA EPSILON CHI

Delta Epsilon Chi is a part of DECA, which is an Association of Marketing Students. The Coahoma Community College HRT Chapter of Delta Epsilon Chi has had 100% membership since the beginning of the chapter.

Chapter activities included participating in Coronation ceremonies held during Homecoming Week. This year Adrian Linzy and Dwylette Washington represented the chapter as Mr. and Miss Delta Epsilon Chi. The chapter helped with the financial expense for the evening wear during the Coronation ceremony. The chapter observed National DECA/Delta Epsilon Chi Week, October 13-19, 2002. The chapter advisor, along with the carpentry instructor, hosted a luncheon for the carpentry and the hotel-restaurant students. The luncheon concluded with a promotional talk about DECA /Delta Epsilon Chi.

CCC-HRT Chapter attended the annual Delta Epsilon Chi Fall Leadership Conferences on October 8, 2002. Those who attended from CCC, enjoyed driving down the night before, going to the Metro Center Mall, and spending the night at the FFA Center. Four members were able to attend the 1st Annual Collegiate Leadership Conference sponsored by National Delta Epsilon Chi. This conference was held in New Orleans, LA in November. Members participated in other conferences included the State Career Development Conference held this year in Jackson, MS as well as the International Career Development Conference held in Orlando, FL for the winners in State Competition.

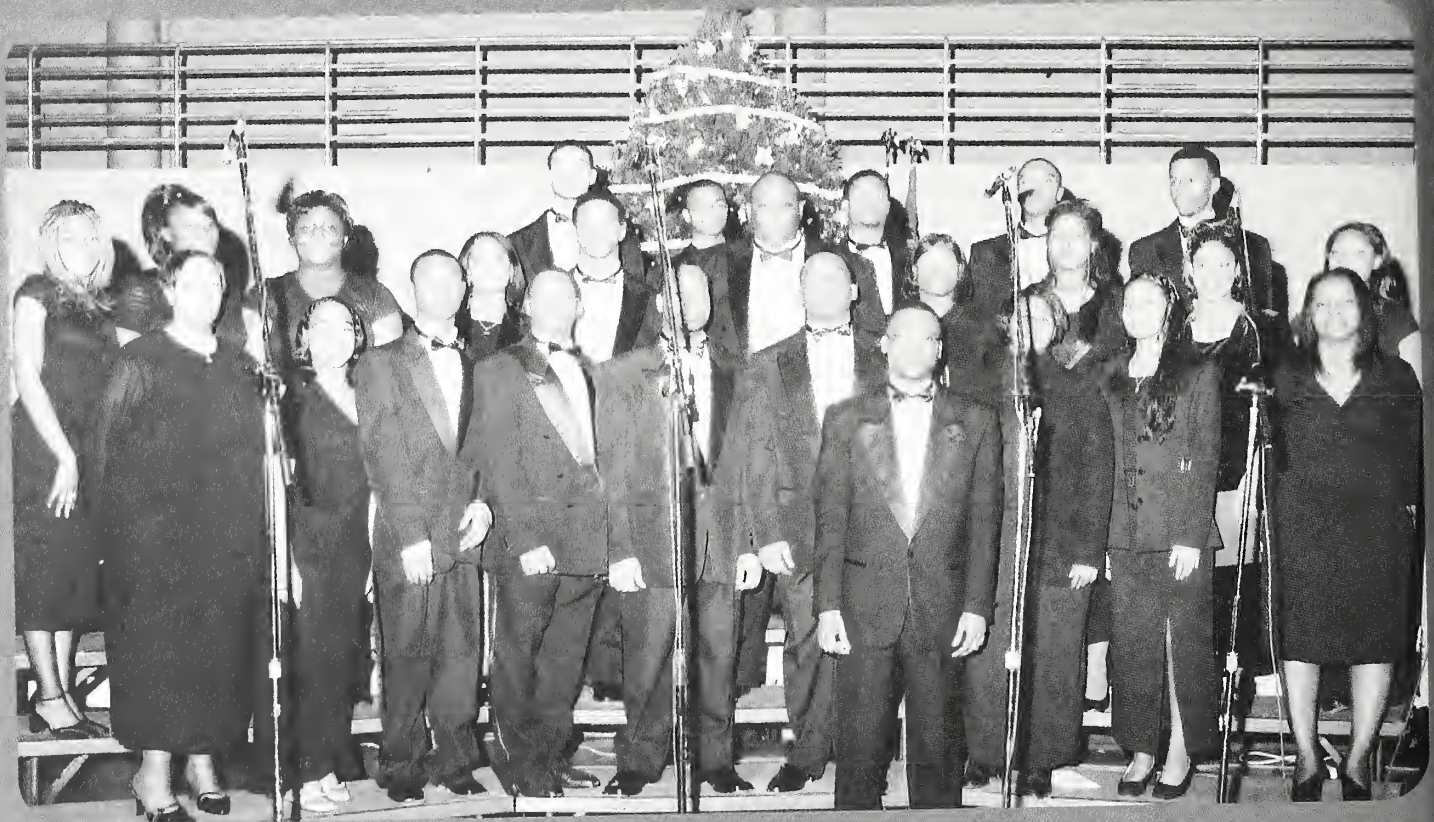

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association served as the voice of the student body. Its main goals were to serve, inform, educate, and represent the ideas of the student community. In attempts to get a wider knowledge of the wants and needs of the student body, the SGA had suggestion boxes placed at various locations around the campus. The SGA participated in the decision-making process within the institution's government. They worked closely with the Dean of Student Affairs to tackle issues both large and small, and presented ideas for change. SGA meetings were held bi-monthly on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month. Pictured below are the SGA officers, however, the Student Government Association does not stop here. It includes the entire student body.

The Tigervicious Show Choir performed during the Coronation activity

The Coahoma Community College and AHS Concert Choir was the College's premier choral ensemble, under the direction of Kelvin K. Towers. Composed of a select group of collegiate and high school students hailing from the Mississippi Delta and representing a variety of disciplines, the Concert Choir repertoire included great classical choral literature and arousing Negro Spirituals. The choir achieved local and statewide acclaim as one of the most diverse groups of the Delta.

The Tigervicious Show Choir was one of the featured groups of Coahoma Community College under the direction of Kelvin K. Towers. The Tigervicious Show Choir provided a multicultural experience throughout the campus and surrounding communities. This special ensemble incorporated a blend of Jazz, Rhythm & Blues, Pop, and other Ethnic repertoire that created electrifying performances throughout the Mississippi Delta.

VICA

The purpose of VICA (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America) is to unite a common bond of all students enrolled in a vocational or technical education program. This organization was organized to develop leadership abilities through participation in educational, vocational, civic, recreational and social activities.

The VICA organization has competed in many competitions in Mississippi and throughout the United States. The students competed with other students from secondary and post secondary schools. In the Fall semester of 2002, CCC students held the positions as President, vice-president, treasurer, parliamentarian and reporter.

Wesley Foundation members believed that Christian life often has many questions as answers. They are committed to searching together while enjoying the journey during their years at CCC.

The Wesley Foundation was a spiritual home that offered plenty of opportunities for students from all communities to come together to find answers to life's difficult situations.

The meetings were held weekly in the Magnolia Room located in the Zee A. Barron Student Union. Prayer always began the meetings as well as a scripture and song. After discussions and concerns, the meetings were ended with a prayer.

The Wesley Foundation enjoyed monthly pot-lucks, trips, and visits to Lyon Elementary School where reading and mentoring took place.

VALLY FOODS

Cooked three meals a day

The greatest challenge facing any college food service operation is how to keep students on campus at mealtime. Valley did it by preparing food that students and faculty wanted to eat. The proprietary systems made food preparation efficient and affordable.

Valley Foods has received high marks for their attention to nutrition, as well as their ability to keep up with the changing interests of the student body. Vegetarian menus and on-campus grill were just a few of the creative solutions Valley's developed to engage students. These kinds of ideas, combined with smarter food purchasing, menu planning make Valley a leader in college food service

Respiratory Therapy

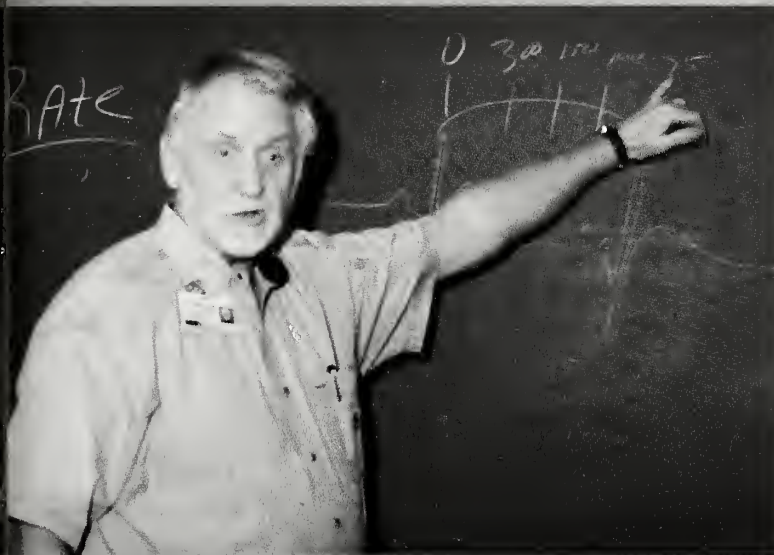

Organized to address the shortage of health care professionals in the Delta, the program included classes on the CCC campus on Friars Point Road, and one year of clinical training at the local Medical Center and other area hospitals.

The program was unveiled one year ago before more than 75 prospective students interested in learning more about health care careers offering $30,000 incomes following graduation.

According to Swatzell, the students are highly intelligent, independent thinkers with the ability to take information and figure out what needs to be done.

The CCC Tigers have come a l-o--n--g way since 1981. In Miller Stadium and away, the Tigers were still a force to be reckoned with. The Tigers defeated Co-Lin and Holmes which was a shocking upset according to PR Director, Panny Mayfield.

Despite CCC's injury-ridden season, the Tigers proved that the awesome defensive was the key.

The perspective is from the side of the bleachers, looking down the length of the seating area. The crowd is dense, with individuals of various ages and genders visible. Many people are looking towards the right side of the frame, suggesting an event or performance is taking place in that direction. The setting appears to be a sports field or stadium, with a fence or railing visible in the background. The lighting is bright, indicating it is daytime. KICK OFF BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

CCC Homecoming set for Saturday at 1 p.m.

*Coach James Washington
shoots for 604th career win*

Special to the Press Register

Former Tiger basketball greats including L.A. Laker Earnest Killum are expected in the stands Saturday to cheer Coahoma Community College teams in their homecoming battle with Hinds-Utica Community College.

The first game begins at 1 p.m. in The Pinnacle with Alumni Hall of Fame induction scheduled between the two games.

"We're looking for large crowds and many former players to be here," commented Athletic Director James Washington, who coaches the men's team. "We're inviting everyone in the area to come out for the games."

Among the notables he expects are Killum, former CCC Coach Arthur Fielder, Dr. Lonnie Edwards, Dr. Marcus Reeves, Freddie Jones, former women's coach Ella Morris, and members of the Lady Tiger squad who won 1979 regional championship.

Many alumni are expected for the Coahoma Aggie High School game with Shelby Broadstreet Friday night. Saturday night Broadstreet will be playing Coldwater High School Saturday night in The Pinnacle.

Tiger coach James Washington speaks to his team.

CCC Coach James Washington

A living legend still goes strong

Call it Coahoma Junior College, CJC, Coahoma Community College or CCC.

The fact is that the school, its students, its faculty, its administration and its athletic teams, remain so very close and dear to the heart of athletic director and men's head basketball coach James Washington.

"I love this place," smiled Washington, just minutes before his team took to the hardwood against Northeast Mississippi Community College Thursday night.

For 29 years, Washington has worked in the basketball program, not only in the junior college ranks, but also at the high school level.

"At one time, I was coaching both the high school and the college," said Washington. "It was a great time in my life."

It also fit Washington's style of coaching.

"It was like having a kid sometimes for four or five years. When they got ready to move up to the JUCO level, they knew me and the program- they knew exactly what we were about. They knew the system. It was one of the happiest times in my coaching career."

Washington owns an overall career mark of 605-323 for a .611 winning percentage.

The "round man of rebound" has coached both Coahoma Agricultural High School and Coahoma Junior College to state championships.

"My best team at Aggie was the 1983-84 team that finished 31-1 including the state championship," remembered Washington.

"Our only loss that year was the Alcorn Central. You don't forget those."

His 1986-87 quintet at CJC finished 27-2 and also won a state championship.

"We has some talent on that team," exclaimed Washington.

Among those special players were Chris Brunt who later played point guard at Arkansas and sharpshooter Tim Pollard.

"Tim left us and went to Valley where he led the nation in 3 pointers."

BREAKING

NEWS!

"We also had a couple of kids from Quitman County that could light it up," as he recalled the names of Charles Presley, Kenny Furr and Carl Hicks.

Washington was born in 1948 in humble beginnings in Glendora and first attended school at Black Bayou.

"We moved to Friars Point in 1957," said Washington who then went to school at Friars Point Elementary and Junior High School.

Washington was quite the athlete at Friars Point, earning the role as a starter while just in the seventh-grade.

"We were undefeated for two years," said Washington proudly.

Moving on to Coahoma Aggie, Washington was a four-year starter on a Tiger team that lost only 11 games during that four year stint.

"I played point guard-alongside Earnest Killum who later played with the (Los Angeles) Lakers.

"I was already a pretty big guy when I was in the ninth-grade," laughed Washington. "I was 6-foot-2 by then."

Washington went on to stardom, playing roundball for the Aggie High Tigers.

"My best game was against Indianola Gentry," recalled Washington. "I scored 34 points and grabbed 22 rebounds."

Washington's best performance at the JUCO level came against Utica when he pumped in 22 points while snatching 18 rebounds.

I liked to mix it up pretty good back then," grinned Washington.

Coahoma Junior College was a "run-'n'-gun" team in those days, averaging more than 100 points per game.

"I played during the William "Pop" Gaines era. Pop also was a big influence on me."

After Washington finished his two years at Coahoma Junior College, he was recruited by Campbellsville (KY) College.

"I started on the basketball team for two years," said Washington. "It was the best opportunity of my life. It was a great experience, and I got a chance to work with good people of all nationalities. It really shaped my life."

Campbellsville was a Gideon-faith-based Christian College in a basketball hot bed pointed our Washington.

"I think I was the only guy up there that wasn't studying to be a preacher," said Washington who majored in sociology.

After leaving Campbellsville, Washington's first job came as school teacher at a small St. Louis high School.

"I came back home to visit during the holidays and CJC was in need of a coach continued Washington. Four important men that I looked up to- Leonard Henderson, Charles Barron, James Miller and George Green - they all encouraged me to take the job - which I did. I've been here ever since.

"There are so many rewards to my job but seeing young kids grow and develop and mature into fine young men - that's what it all about," added Washington.

"While I'm proud of all my teams, one of my best accomplishments is that 82 percent of the kids I've coached have gotten college degrees. We've had three doctors come out of the JUCO ranks."

Since Washington began coaching nearly a score-and-a-half ago, many significant changes have occurred in the game of college basketball.

"Probably the two biggest changes I've seen are the different rules in foul shooting and the time clock," said Washington. "And don't forget about how much girl's basketball has changed. They've gone from the roving forwards and six players on the team to playing nearly identical to the guys.

Washington said the shot clock has definitely changed the way a lot of basketball contemporaries coach.

"A lot of the coaches like to use the whole shot clock to work a good shot," stated Washington. "It's not as much run-'n'-gun it used to be. I like to work the clock down about 10 seconds myself, whenever I can."

Probably the only thing more dear to Washington than Coahoma community College is his family of four.

"I've got a great wife - Zee - and two fine young children," said Washington.

Son James, Jr. now coaches a Shaw High School after playing football while attending MVSU.

Nineteen-year-old daughter Jessica is a freshman at - you guessed it - the other love of James Washington's life - Coahoma Community College.

Ranger sneak past CCC 71-69

Special to the Press Register

The mighty Tigers of Coahoma Community College led Northwest 19 points at half-time Monday night in The Pinnacle.

But 20 minutes later at the final buzzer they were down 71-69, courtesy of two bulldog free throws with two seconds remaining on the game clock.

Afterward Coach James Washington says his team became complacent and forgot they had another half to play.

However, many fans has problems with officials ruling put J.T. Thomas' basket when the shot clock buzzer sounded with 4 seconds remaining in the game tied 69-69.

Next officials called a foul on the Tiger defender who was knocked down on the floor when the Bulldogs out the ball into play.

The final score was the only Bulldogs only led of the game.

The Tigers' 43-24 half-time lead was complied by the teamwork of many players rather than usual blistering three-point shooting barrage of J.T. Thomas and Tamarrius Brown.

Cedric Thomas and Steve Robinson tipped in several missed outside shots, and Oliver Edwards executed an acrobatic shooting performance. Byron Carter scored the first basket and continued an aggressive pace while Freddie Paschal was a defensive terror to the Bulldogs and finally fouled out.

When the second half opened, momentum shifted to the Bulldogs, who scored 15 unanswered points before Tamarrius Brown hit a basket near the 15-minute mark.

Although the tigers remained up to six points most of the way, shots were going down for the aggressive Bulldogs who tied the game 69-69 with 41 seconds remaining.

Leading Tiger scorer was Brown with 21 points; Evans had 18; J.T. Thomas, Cedric Thomas, and Byron Carter had 8 points each; Chris Robinson, Vince Cross, and Derrick Davis finished with 2 points each.

In the first game the out matched Lady Tigers were defeated 72-34. Super jumper Jennifer Nelson won the tipoff and later scored the first basket for the tigers.

However, there were few bright spots in the contest although point guard Genita Brown, who is shipping out for military duty with the National Guard later this week, did a good job handling the ball.

The half-time score was 41-12. Top scorer was Nelson with 12 points followed by Myla Perry with 8 points; Demetra Sykes, 5; Tiffany Jones, 3; and Janice Strong, 2.

Both Tigers teams play Northwest Mississippi Community College at home Thursday. The first game begins at 6 p.m.

CCC wins in final seconds

Special to the Press Register

Although the high-energy Tigers of Coahoma Community College hit the court running and gunning Saturday against Hinds-Utica before a full house at Basketball Homecoming, their 75-71 victory was wrenched only after a nail-biting 5.5-second finale.

The Lady Tigers were not so lucky; they lost to the Lady Bulldogs 63-48.

The men's victory was the 605th career win for Coach James Washington, who was honored afterward at a CCC reception attended by former players, teammates, and officials.

At Saturday's final buzzer, Washington said he felt very relieved. "This was a big one."

Former Tiger and LA Laker Earnest Killum called the victory a great success. Another alumnus Dr. Lonnie Edwards said, "It was wonderful; all of us are committed to Coahoma; we always come back to see Wash's teams."

Between games four former players were inducted into the Hall of Fame: Lisa Washington of Vidalia, La.; Timothy Pollard of Friars Point; Tangolyn Zanders of Jackson, and Charles Cooley of Greenwood.

In a slower-paced first game, Jennifer Nelson outjumped her Bulldog opponent, but Hinds scored first after a steal and stayed on top the remainder of the game.

Genita Brown hit a three-point goal and a layup by Nelson closing the gap 21-15 with five minutes remaining in the first half spurred aggressive play for a 34-24 halftime score.

In the second half three consecutive goals by Janet Jones capped by a bucket from Nelson positioned the Lady Tigers only four points down at 44-40.

However after Jones and Nelson fouled out, Hinds pulled out front for a final victory.

Brown and Nelson both scored 11 points; Demetra Sykes hit for 10; Mylar Perry and Jones had 7 each; and Mary Davis, 2.

With the rank of specialist D4 in National Guard 223rd Engineering Battalion, point guard Genita Brown recently was called up for military active duty and her participation in Saturday's game was uncertain.

"Our date was moved back to Feb. 1," Brown said following the game.

In the second game the Tigers dominated the first half and led by as much as 11 points through spectacular shooting by point guard J.T. Thomas with three 3-point buckets and another by Tamarrius Brown. However, with less flamboyant layups, the Bulldogs kept pace and were down only one point at halftime, 39-38.

Roaring from the locker room, the Tigers charged into the second half with Tamarrius Brown hitting four consecutive 3-point goals elevating CCC into a 52-46 lead.

But the Bulldogs refused to roll over and play dead and began their own 3-point shooting war.

At the seven-minute mark, CCC led 59-58, at five minutes Hinds tied the game 60-60, and a minute later the Tigers went up 63-60.

The nail-biting finale started CCC out front 73-71 and Hinds with the ball with 17 seconds remaining. Thomas stole the ball with 5.5 ticks left. Fouled immediately, he hit both free shots boosting his total to 21.

High scorer was Brown with 23 points; Davis with 12; Carter, 5; Chris Robinson, 7; Freddie Paschal, 2; and Chris Thomas and Steve Robinson, 1 each.

CCC drops pair at home

Tigers rusty after holiday layoff says longtime coach

Special to the Press Register

Holmes Community College claimed a pair of victories at Coahoma Community College Monday night over sluggish Tiger teams apparently recovering from a long holiday break from the regimen of basketball.

The women from Holmes soundly whipped the Lady Tigers 80-41, and Coach James Washington's mighty Tigers also went down in defeat 83-68.

"I don't want to take anything away for the Holmes team because they are great, but this was our first game since the Christmas break, and our guys were sluggish," commented Washington.

In the first game Jennifer Nelson won the opening tipoff, and point guard Genita Brown scored the first bucket followed by additional Nelson and Brown baskets for a brief 8-4 CCC lead.

However, Holmes took advantage of bad passes and poor rebounding to pull ahead 15-10 midway in the first half. By half-time the score favored Holmes 40-17.

The second half continued the downward spiral of the Lady Tigers team that included four new athletes playing together for the first time. Nelson was top scorer with 15 points followed by Brown with 13; Myla Perry with 8, Mary Davis with 3 and Tiffany Jones, 2.

The Tigers arsenal of super shooters went to work immediately with nimble point guard J.T. Thomas hitting for a three-point score.

However Holmes answered and buried the Tiger advantage with steady stream of buckets for an 18-9 lead midway into the first half expanding to 45-25 at half-time.

A shooting duel starring CCC's Tamarrius Brown opened the second half with the Greenwood shooter hitting four consecutive buckets and a 57-35 score still lagging behind Holmes.

Although Brown continued his razzle-dazzle pace and closed the gap to a 14-point deficit, Holmes always seemed to answer and put winning well out of CCC's reach.

The Tigers appeared to miss the center play and wide body aggressiveness of Clarence White. Coach Washington said he expected the big Como athlete on court for the next game.

Brown was top scorer with 23 points followed by Thomas with 9; Oliver Evan with 8; Byron Carter and Cedric Thomas, each with 7; Freddie Paschal and Derrick Davis, each with 6; and Fredrick Sims with 2.

The next Tiger home game is 6 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 21 with East Mississippi Community College. Basketball homecoming is a 1 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25 with Hinds-Utica.

Northeast tames Tigers two times

Special to The Press Register

Tigers beat Tigers Thursday night at The Pinnacle.

But the winners were not the Coahoma Community College Tigers but their Northeast Mississippi cousins.

The women's team from Booneville won 99-53, and their men took home a 90-75 victory.

Although Coach James Washington agreed Northeast's shooting was hot, and CCC's was not, he faulted lack of defense for most problems.

"We were never in the flow of our game; we didn't execute," he commented afterward. "I think we'll be all right; but tonight we were always a step late."

Although CCC's Lady Tigers went down in defeat, the game belonged to CCC's talented point guard Genita Brown who is shipping out for active military duty with the National Guard early Saturday morning.

Playing with determination to make her last game memorable, Brown successfully escaped man-on-man traps, hammered the defense with four successful full-court runs to the basket, scored a 3-point bucket and amassed a total of 25 points.

Between games she was honored on center court at a presentation by Dr. Vivian Presley, college president, Coach Shirley Artis, Athletic Director James Washington, and showered with roses, gifts and a farewell cake.

CCC jumping star Jennifer Nelson won the tipoff, but Northeast stole the ball away and scored the first basket. Myla Perry hit from outside, and Brown completed her first long distance drive for a layup to bring CCC's Lady Tigers within two points.

Northeast led 45-22 at half-time, and the second half became physical with the Booneville women widening the gap.

Active Duty

Lady Tiger point guard Genita Brown, who will be leaving for active military service Saturday with the National Guard, is honored Thursday night following CCC's game with Northeast Mississippi.

With Athletic Director James Washington presiding at the presentation, team score keeper Monique Martin presents a cake. Brown played the game of her life Thursday night scoring a career-high 25 points against Northeast.

Jennifer Nelson scored 13 points; Perry, 8; Demetra Sykes and Tiffany Jones had four each.

The Tigers of Northeast jumped out front from the opening buzzer and a 3-point bucket by J.T. Thomas tied the score 14-14 seven minutes later.

Thomas, Tamarrius Brown, and Steve Robinson hit more 3-pointers, and CCC went up 28-25, but lead was short-lived.

With two minutes remaining in the first half Robert Watkins tied the game 38-38, and the hometown Tigers appeared to be hitting their stride with scores by Brown and Byron Carter. At half-time Northeast was on top only 42-40.

But in the second half the other Tigers outscored and out-rebounded CCC and went up as much as 21 points. Thomas hit a 3-point goal with two minutes remaining and another in the final 20 seconds.

He was the leading scorer with 20 points followed by Byron Carter with 18; Brown with 14; Chris Robinson with 9; Derrick Davis and Freddie Pascal, each with 4; Oliver Evans and Vince Cross, each with 3.

Coahoma's next home game is Feb. 10 with Mississippi Delta.

New Field House Dedicated

August 7, 2002

More than 100 city of Clarksdale and Coahoma County officials, dignitaries, educators and students attended the recent dedication of Coahoma Community College's new $800,000 field house named in honor of the retired athletic director, George A. Green.

Opening the ceremony, President Vivian Presley said the CCC Board of Trustees vote to honor Green, was unanimous.

"One name came to the forefront," said Presley who reviewed Green's successful 40-year teaching and coaching career at CCC and Coahoma Agricultural High School.

CCC Athletic Director James Washington said, "I learned a lot of things under coach Green; he had a dream about this building."

Eddie C. Smith, president of the Board of Supervisors and director of CCC alumni affairs, called Green a special person. "He has a sense of humor, believes in families; what you see is what you get."

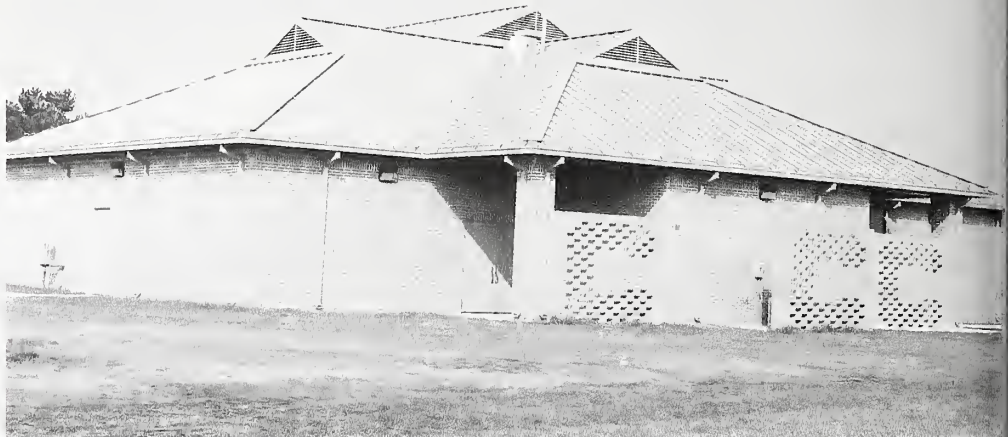

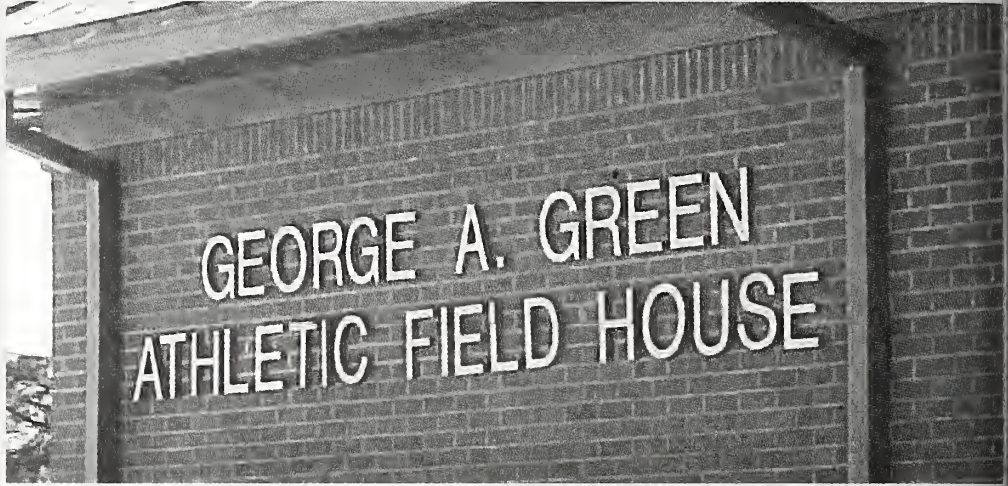

State Rep. John Mayo, former CCC public relations director, said Green was his friend when he needed a friend. "He taught me that you call the plays and move on and look forward to the next play."

Speaking to the audience, Lucius Turner, Green's former coach at Utica High School, said, "I appreciate what you're doing for George; I coached him in 1951, and he was part of our Utica family."

Summarizing his coaching philosophy that no one player is better than the group, Green said, "I thank you for your support when I needed it."

Head Football Coach Freeman Horton said, "Good things happen to good people; I hope to continue his legacy. This is a great day for Coahoma."

CO-EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

It has been a privilege and an honor to serve as Co-Editor of The Coahoman. It has taught me the true meaning of dedication and responsibility. There was never a dull moment working on this publication. This year's yearbook staff worked very hard and diligently to develop a high quality book that would be memorable and enjoyable to read. The yearbook staff has strived to make sure that the most memorable moments were highlighted. It was a long, hard task, but we did it.

Lynne' Williams

This year the yearbook staff started out with six people and in the end, there were two. This yearbook would not have been the same without three very important people, Mrs. Caradine, Mrs. Stanford, and Rozetta Womack. These three women have made working on the yearbook fun and exciting. I don't think I have ever worked so hard and had so much fun seeing the end results of this 2003 Yearbook. The experience I gained working on the Yearbook Staff in High School does not compare to the experience I have learned working on the Coahoman.

I thank the Lord for the strength he has given me throughout this year. I would like to thank my parents and grandparents for their never ending love and support.

Special thanks goes to Cheryl Woodley for rendering her typing skills to enhance the 2003 Yearbook Publication.

CO-EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

One of the most exciting experiences I have encountered is being a part of the Coahoman Yearbook Staff. Holding the position as Co-editor of The Coahoman has been an enduring challenge. It has opened a new chapter in my life, one of which I will always cherish. We started out with six staff members and for some unforeseen reason we end up as two. A co-editor has to be on top of each task and willing to go all the way. I have enjoyed going the extra mile. There were times that really stressed me out, but it was worth it.

Rozetta Womack

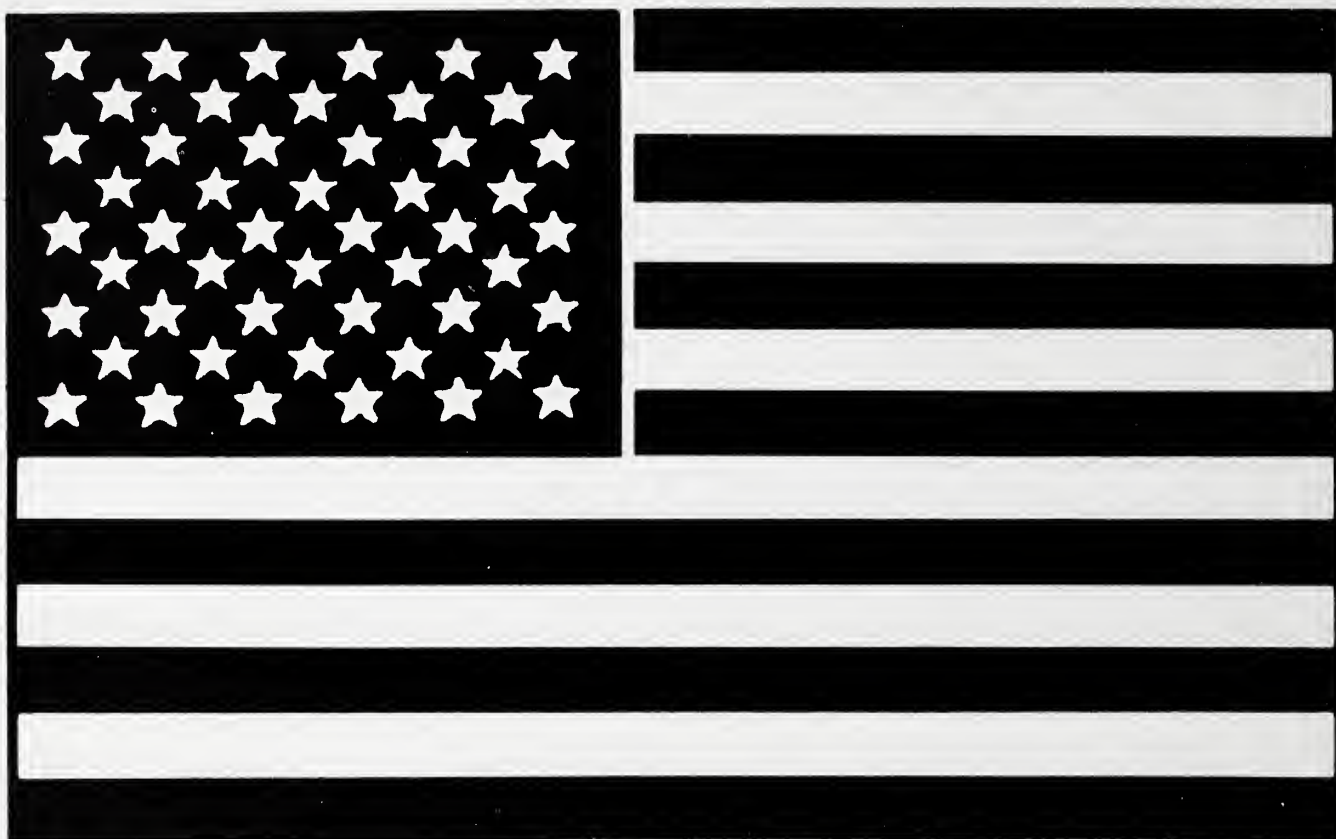

This job was very time consuming, but rewarding. I have stayed up all night to complete work for the following day. Running around campus to find out who is who and where and when kept me in shape. Though the tasks taken to complete this memorable publication were time consuming, I must say, "there is nothing like it." I have enjoyed the time spent together with Lynne', Mrs. Caradine and Mrs. Stanford and I hope that there is more for us in the future.

I would like to thank my father Rev. John Coleman who always encourages me to do more than my best.

Special thanks goes to Allen Collins for rendering his typing skills to enhance the 2003 Yearbook Publication.

Operation Enduring Freedom 2003

Students from our family were shipped out as part of Operation Enduring Freedom. To support the U.S. military's anti-terrorism campaign and in anticipation of possible war with Iraq. They are ready and willing to serve our country. WE are very proud of our soldiers. Along with their families and friends; we wish them love, patience, courage, strength and a safe return home. May God bless them all, and may God bless America.

Music

From hip-hop to electronica, pop to rock, no one musical genre dominated the airwaves and headphones of America. The year saw new albums from Moby, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Eminem, Leann Rimes and many more. Kelly Clarkson's career as a chanteuse took off, Lance Bass was grounded as a cosmonaut, Ozzy showed why he's an iron man, and Triumph marked his territory at the VMAs.

Purple East Coast vs. West Coast
It's rapper versus rapper as Triumph (the multi-comic Dog has a son-in with Eminem's posse on MTV's Video Music Awards).

Britney not so caliente
The divine Miss Spears is booed in Mexico City after she bails her concert just four songs in.

Still red hot
Flea and Anthony continue to assault eardrums and find creative uses for socks on the new Chili Peppers album, "By the Way."

Don't tell Elvis...
Kelly Clarkson becomes the first "American Idol" and hits #1 on the Billboard singles chart.

Bye bye bye!
Lance Bass trains to become the first member of a boy band in orbit. But when he fails to pony up the $20 million fee, the Russians say "nyet!" and send him home.

Something to Crow about
Sheryl Crow performs at the One World, One Child Benefit Concert in Beverly Hills.

Trends

Styles past and future, cheap and chic blended to make the year interesting for the trend-conscious. Denim made a comeback for the 287th time in history, while new electronic devices offered functionality that James Bond would envy. Not to mention that the modern look of Starck and Oldham hit traditional department stores, surfers hit suburbia, and lots of teen girls happily got mud on their faces.

It's, like, totally exfoliating!
Seventeen magazine opens its first spa dedicated exclusively to teens, just outside of Dallas, Texas.

Who cares if we live in Ohio?
Surf/skate fashion is cool, with brands such as Ezekiel, Hurley, and BC Ethic making a big splash on the half-pipe.

Feeling blue?

Denim is in, from jean jackets to hip-huggers, hats to handbags.

Fire up those synapses

Friends no more?

Joey, Rachel, and the rest of the "Friends" weigh whether to return for one more season of their insanely successful show.

America spent much of the year remembering those lost in last year's terrorist attacks and studying ways to bolster national security. Congress and President Bush debated responses to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and allegations that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was building weapons of mass destruction. Meanwhile, forest fires raged across Arizona and other states, threatening thousands of homes and millions of acres of parkland.

Americans had their fair share of epic victories as well, with Lance rolling through the Champs-Élysées ahead of his European rivals and Serena Williams dominating the world tennis scene.
